

You keep your children safe.

Now you can get help to keep them healthy.

Maine wants children who live here to have access to healthcare. That's why MaineCare is now offered to eligible pregnant people and children under 21, with or without proof of citizenship.

Learn more at MaineCare.gov

