- I know that I must tell CoverME.gov if anything changes (and is different than) what I wrote on this application. I can visit CoverME.gov or call 1-866-636-0355 to report any changes. I understand that a change in my information could affect my eligibility.
- I know that under federal law, discrimination isn't permitted on the basis of race, color, national origin, sex, age, sexual orientation, gender identity, or disability. I can file a complaint of discrimination by visiting www.hhs.gov/ocr/office/file.
- I know that my information on this form will be used only to determine eligibility for health coverage and will be kept private as required by law.
- I confirm that I'm not incarcerated (detained or jailed).
- I confirm that next year I expect to file a federal income tax return, won't claim dependents on that return, and can't be claimed as a dependent on another federal income tax return.

If the information doesn't match, we may ask you to send us proof.

Renewal of coverage in future years

To make it easier to determine my eligibility for help paying for health coverage in future years, I agree to allow CoverME.gov to view income data, including information from tax returns. CoverME.gov will send me a notice and let me make any changes, and I can opt out at any time.

☐ 4 years ☐ 3 years ☐ 2 years ☐ 1 year
☐ Don't use information from tax returns to renew my coverage.

If I'm assessed eligible for Medicaid

The Office for Family Independence will send you information about coverage and enrollment or will contact you if more information is needed.

If anyone in my application group is found eligible for MaineCare, I authorize the Office for Family Independence to pursue and seek to collect any money from other health insurance, legal settlements, or other third parties that may be legally responsible for paying any health care received by me or members of my applicant group. I am also authorizing the Office for Family Independence rights to pursue and obtain medical support from a spouse or parent.

What should I do if I think my eligibility results are wrong?

If you don't agree what you qualify for, in many cases, you can ask for an appeal. Please review your eligibility notice to find appeals instructions specific to each person in your household, including how many days you have to request an appeal. The following information is important to consider when requesting an appeal:

- You can have someone request or participate in your appeal if you want to. That person can be a friend, relative, lawyer, or other individual. Or, you can request and participate in your appeal on your own.
- If you request an appeal, you may be able to keep your eligibility for coverage while your appeal is pending.
- The outcome of an appeal could change the eligibility of other members of your household.

To appeal your eligibility results, complete and return the Appeal Request Form available on CoverME.gov. You can appeal eligibility for purchasing health coverage through CoverME.gov, enrollment periods, tax credits, cost-sharing reductions, or Medicaid, if you were denied these. If you qualify for tax credits or cost-sharing reductions, you can appeal the amount we determined you are eligible for.

Permission for information submitted

By submitting this application, you represent that you have permission from all of the people whose information is on the application to both submit their information to the Marketplace and receive any communications about their eligibility and enrollment.

Privacy Act Statement (effective 11/01/2021)

We are authorized to collect the information on this form and any supporting documentation, including social security numbers, under the Patient Protection and Affordable Care Act (Public Law No. 111-148), as amended by the Health Care and Education Reconciliation Act of 2010 (Public Law No. 111-152), and the Social Security Act.

We need the information provided about you and the other individuals listed on this form to determine eligibility for: (1) enrollment in a qualified health plan through CoverME.gov, (2) insurance affordability programs (such as Medicaid, advanced payment of the premium tax credits, and cost sharing reductions), and (3) certifications of exemption from the individual responsibility requirement. As part of that process, we will verify the information provided on the form, communicate with you or your authorized representative, and eventually provide the information to the health plan you select so that they can enroll any eligible individuals in a qualified health plan or insurance affordability program. We will also use the information provided as part of the ongoing operation of CoverME.gov, including activities such as verifying continued eligibility for all programs, processing appeals, reporting on and managing the insurance affordability programs for eligible individuals, performing oversight and quality control activities, combatting fraud, and responding to any concerns about the security or confidentiality of the information.

While providing the requested information (including social security numbers) is voluntary, failing to provide it may delay or prevent your ability to obtain health coverage through CoverME.gov, advanced payment of the premium tax credits, cost sharing reductions, or an exemption from the shared responsibility payment. If you don't have an exemption from the shared responsibility payment and you don't maintain qualifying health coverage for three months or longer during the year, you may be subject to a penalty. If you don't provide correct information on this form or knowingly and willfully provide false or fraudulent information, you may be subject to a penalty and other law enforcement action.

In order to verify and process applications, determine eligibility, and operate, we will need to share selected information that we receive outside of CoverME.gov, including to:

1. Federal agencies, (such as the Internal Revenue Service, Social Security Administration and Department of Homeland Security), or local government agencies. We may use the information you provide in computer matching programs with any of these groups to make eligibility determinations, to verify continued eligibility for enrollment in a qualified health plan or Federal benefit programs, or to process appeals of eligibility determinations;
2. Other verification sources including consumer reporting agencies;
3. Employers identified on applications for eligibility determinations;
4. Applicants/enrollees, and authorized representatives of applicants/enrollees;
5. Agents, Brokers, and issuers of Qualified Health Plans, as applicable, who are certified by CoverME.gov who assist applicants/enrollees;
6. Contractors engaged to perform a function for CoverME.gov; and
7. Anyone else as required by law.

This statement provides the notice required by the Privacy Act of 1974 (5 U.S.C. § 552a(e)(4)).
